When we see her around,
Smiles and laughter
abound,
Not a frown
to be seen on our faces.

Amanda's always
there for her friends,

Know she'll be there
in the end,

She'll make you feel better with her embraces.

Through the

Happy and Sad, in our s, she
fills all empty SPACES.

WE KNOW THESE feelings WILL STAY, THOUGH WE'RE ALL
ON OUR WAY TO new AND exciting ADVENTURES.

Our experiences
altogether,
She's made all

TALL, cherished moments to last
us a lifetime.

From all of us to you,
Happy Birthday.

Amanda, you're finally 22! I can't believe we've known each other since freshman year at Professor Sellinger's PBL dinner, and I was lucky enough to have you as my Exec the following semester! You have always provided much needed support for me throughout these years and you never asked for anything in return! Seriously, you helped me so much when I became the only Chair in PBL and I don't think I would've held the committee together if it weren't for you and William. I'm really glad we got to party together this year! I'm really glad I got to celebrate your 21st in Vegas and we got awesome Cosmo perks (Wicked Spoon!!!) You're always so fun to be around, especially when we went to the Grand and GPhi Invite together! I admire your passion for dance and your dedication towards your pursuits. I can't wait to see what's in store for you, Amanda! Have an amazing birthday girl, you deserve the best. :)

Love,
Jeannie

Hey Amanda!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY :) You are hands down, one of the most caring, compassionate, cutest, and loyal friends and you deserve every amazing thing that comes your way. Thanks for always being there for me even if it's to watch me cry by Krocher fountain during finals week <sup>when</sup>. I loved that we got to know you had 4 finals no less!! I loved that we got to know each other better during our time at Infinity (OMG....lol), and I'm so glad we were able to share experiences like the Nike Women's Marathon and white water rafting. You are seriously such an amazing person. I can't wait to hang out with you more this year. Good luck with your CPA exams and starting at KPMG. I'm so unbelievably proud of you and I can't wait to see all the extraordinary things you're going to accomplish this year!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY :)

♥ Sarah

Amanda you are a chiller!
Hope you have a great birthday

Amanda - Happy birthday!! Amanda!

I am so thankful to have you as a friend - you are such a beautiful girl, inside and out. Hope you have an amazing 2nd one! I look forward to your first year of work! Can't wait until you move up to San Francisco one day :) So sad I couldn't spend your birthday with you this year but excited to catch up when I get back to the states!! Love you!!

Amanda -

I'm forever grateful for your authenticity, kindness, intelligence, and wonderful sense of humor. Thanks for being such an amazing friend during college. I can't wait for all the good times to come in our post-grad years. Have a fantastic birthday, you deserve the best!

-Steph Liu

You are such a wonderful and cheerful friend. I loved Tahoe, showing off limbo potential at retreats, epic resistance missions and so much more. Lets keep on having more fun and adventures. Have an awesome 22nd birthday and I look forward to our times ahead!

-Alan

Amazing Amanda :)

I'm so lucky to have met you at Cal! Your smart, savvy, and fun-loving personality is totally irreplaceable. Your passion for the issues and people you care about shows through your actions. Thanks for being a friend and inspiration, and have a laughter-filled 22nd birthday! Looking forward to many years of friendship ahead!

XO, Cathy

Amanda!! Happy 22nd birthday :) I still remember the few times we went to KEEN and helped out those kids by playing ball and having a bunch of fun. You're fun/energetic personality and kindness always lit me and everybody around you. I'm glad to have known you these past few years and truly look forward to getting to know you better in the future.
To Many More Years of laughing + hanging out!!

Bebeh bebeh bebeh. There are many moments that we've shared together, and all of them are so great. One day we'll look through our photos for a couple hours and just reminisce:) You exude and attract joy from all that around you. Just look at the comments! You also inspire many people especially me! Happy Birthday love :) Lansie's gifts are hella dope. I cannot compete yo.

Hey Amanda, I can't believe it's already been over three years since we first met. I have no idea how we got so close so fast but I remember you were an awesome fr chair and always took the time to hangout with me. And from there it was like fate for us to meet. Because of you I am probably with Yun today haha so thanks for always listening to him and pairing us up LOLLL. My favorite memories of us are obviously food moments when we get to talk you and me and eat at new places. Burma and noodle theory are two of my favorites thanks to you! Thanks for being one of my closest friends at Berkeley and making it an awesome four years

Happy Birthday to da best roomie EVER! I can't believe we met nearly six years ago in Calc/Physics and have become close '11 at PBL IN Kickoff. Through cheerleader tosses, raging white waters, and firing guns, it has been a plethora of good times and I look forward to more in the future as friends.

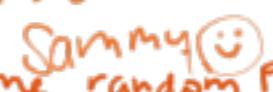

Dear Amanda,
It has been a while from the first time we met, although way back in Fall 2011 at PBL IN Kickoff. Through cheerleader tosses, raging white waters, and firing guns, it has been a plethora of good times and I look forward to more in the future as friends.

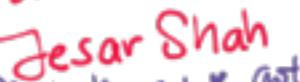

Happy Birthday! -Daniel Du

I know you will continue to be successful in your professional career as you earn your CPA and become a tax assessor! Can't wait for more foodie moments and Indian dance performances!

HIMMAH! WARNING: this may be slightly cheesy :P
I'm sooo glad that I got to meet you freshman year. I know I keep saying it over and over again (like a broken radio), but having you and Rohin as my chair didn't make me feel homesick because you made SOCIAL feel like my home away from home. I still remember the first time we met. I think I literally walked up to the table and everyone sitting were in Social. I think it was during the Social Mixer at Sun Hong Kong where we really hit it off. Ever since then, I was pretty sure I wanted to be in Social and never looked back.

From you cooking food for us, to helping me move my stuff, to helping me when I thought I was going half-dead to our run together, I really enjoyed spending time with you!! I'm really thankful that you were willing to spend so much time chilling with me since I was only a freshman and you were a senior. TBH, I don't really know what to do with myself for the next three years now you're gone. XPT 207.2729

Hey Amanda!
I think we met at some random PBL retreat back in the day in 2010, and I'm glad to have had you as such a great friend to talk about some deep shit/stuff. Have an amazing 22nd!
Brian Lu

Dear Amanda,
Happy Birthday!! I'm so happy that I texts you to shadow you back when I was a sophomore, and back when you set me straight after my lanyard wearing days lol. You're such a kind, smart, and passionate person, and I'm so happy that we got closer this past year. College won't be the same without you, but it's good to know that you'll be visiting often! Thanks for being a great mentor, a great social mommie, and all in all, a great friend! Hope you have a wonderful 22nd birthday

Happy Birthday Amanda! I think the first time we got close was when we took the trip down to LA together and we talked for the whole ride up and down - that was crazy. It's been so chill getting to know you more and more and hanging out all these times! Being in Social together was awesome as well. I know we don't hang out that much just us two these days but we will soon and talk about life like we used to!

Have a great one!

Yun Park

Sorry I won't be there to celebrate with you in person but thanks for being such a great friend over the years! Can't wait to hangout again when I get back!

- William Yan

Hi Mandy,

I have never celebrated your birthday with you, and today I am continuing that tradition. But actually though, when I do get to celebrate it with you, it'll be at an opportune time; precisely three days after another night of heavy drinking - just enough time to recover and drink more.

The memory I'd like to recount is, to say it frankly, a turning point in our lives. Something that I think, has changed your perspective on the world dramatically. It is when you tried Pepsid for the first time. That night you quintupled your average alcohol consumption, and, much to my bewilderment, acted like a completely different Amanda. An Amanda that definitely gained a new perspective that night.

I'd like you to remember that night so you may reproduce it today and drink unabashed. Because tonight, you're drinking for the both of us

Rhin

I can't really remember how we really officially met, but I do remember the summer after freshman year when we became really close. It was the first time we had deep conversations and had a lot of fun partying together. I am so happy to have been able to get to know such a sweet and cheerful girl like you!

Best Memory: Going to Vegas together and of course, sharing our stories with each other when we were both single hehe. Now we're both in committed relationships - everything came around full-circle! ❤

Amanda,

I'm really glad we've become such good friends over the past few years. From being Historians and Becs together to being travel buddies to Canada + Tahoe, we've been through good times and bad. I know we'll be doing some really cool things together in the near and far future and I can't wait!

Jason

Dearest Amanda,

Welcome to the age of 22!

Occasionally, I thank my lucky stars (if I have any), that we met and talked over a Noah's Bagel with Salmon smear. Not only did I discover the deliciousness of that particular spread, I also found a new best friend.

I have to thank you for many things actually, because through our friendship I have met other great friends and gone on exciting adventures that I think I otherwise would not have done. I've already forgotten a few things from college now that we've graduated, but I will never forget all the fun things we did or places we've been.

Your friendship is something I truly treasure as I am 100% sure you have helped me grow these past 3 years. I am sad because I will soon leave you and others, but I find solace in knowing we will continue to grow closer, if not only from afar.

Here's to more wonderful adventures to come. And regardless of whatever happens down the road, I know that I will never forget our time together, the good old days.

Happy Birthday to my dear friend!
